INTERACTIVE SYMPOSIUM

- Expert panel discussions
- Skill stations in nerve blocks and onabotulinum toxin injection in headache
- Women and migraine
- Special topics in headache treatment
- Post-traumatic headache & concussion
- Physician wellness experience
- Discussion on challenging headache cases and refractory headache management
- Featuring a pre-symposium Self-Assessment activity
SYMPOSIUM DESCRIPTION
This symposium provides attendees with an update in the diagnosis and management of headache disorders. The format will include lectures, expert panel discussions, interactive question and answer sessions, and small-group break-out sessions. Some of the special topics are:

- Headache and hormones
- Trigeminal autonomic cephalalgias
- Emergency and inpatient management of headache
- Post-traumatic headache and concussion
- Chronic daily headache
- Patient advocacy
- Physician wellness
- More topics on the symposium website

SYMPOSIUM ACCOMMODATIONS
Residence Inn Phoenix Desert View at Mayo Clinic
A limited block of guest rooms has been reserved for attendees with a special course rate of $273 per night, plus applicable taxes, for single or double occupancy. Make your reservation online at www.bit.ly/HeadacheCourseRoomBlockMarch2017 or call (800) 331-3131 or (480) 563-1500 on or before the cut-off date of Thursday, February 16, 2017 or before the room block fills and identify yourself as part of the Mayo Clinic Headache course. Group rates will be honored 3 days prior to and 3 days following the course dates, based upon space availability.

REGISTRATION
Additional information including online registration is available at the symposium website www.ce.mayo.edu/node/24316. Online registrations will receive a $75 discount when you register by February 17, 2017.

$75 DISCOUNT
when you register online by February 17, 2017.

web: ce.mayo.edu/node/24316
e-mail: mca.cme@mayo.edu
phone: (480) 301-4580

Mayo Clinic College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. ©2016 Mayo Foundation for Medical Education and Research.